Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- Identify significant historical events in American History from the establishment of the first English colonies through the Reconstruction period.
- Provide examples of the role of politics, the economy, and diplomacy in the formation of the American government.
- Assess the major social, political, and cultural issues that arose within the United States from 1789 through 1877.
- Differentiate between primary and secondary sources and integrate these sources into the study of history.

Instructional Approach and Methods

1. Students will be expected to regularly access online class materials, ask questions about the assigned materials, and complete assignments by the posted due date
2. Students will be expected to perform satisfactorily on the scheduled examinations and on the final exam.
3. Students will be expected to comply attendance and testing policies.
4. Students will be evaluated on their performance on the regularly scheduled quizzes, the final exam, other written work.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

1. Sixteen, chapter quizzes (15 points each).

2. Six, 250-500 word short essays (20 points each).
3. One, final exam (80 points).

Grading Scale

A	90%
B	80%
C	70%
D	60%
F	59% and below

Assignments

Module essays must be 250-500 words in length to be a completed assignment and receive a grade. Any assignment not meeting the minimum word count will be returned one time for revision, which must be completed within two weeks of the original due date. However, if the revision does not meet grading parameters, the assignment will receive zero points in the grade book. No late or missing work will be accepted during finals week. Words are calculated on MS-Word program, which every student has access. Quotes and footnotes do not count toward the word count. Footnotes must be formatted in The Chicago Manual of Style. Answers must contain at least one footnote or citation from the assigned textbook and will be graded on thoroughness of the answer. Do not answer in generalities, vague statements, or using long quotes from the textbook author. Points are earned by providing an original argumentative thesis, proof, and concluding idea in the first paragraph. Then, the names, dates, details that support your ideas in the body paragraphs. The concluding paragraph should tell the reader what they learned from reading the essay. This type of writing is called rhetoric, which means the author is trying to convince the reader that writer's argument is correct. This will be different from the MLA narratives written in high school, which only restate the information provided by the textbook author. The Primary Document assignment will be graded similarly, but also requires a citation for the novel and the letter. Using the textbook, American Stories and no outside internet sources, write the final essay that must be 1500 words in length to be a completed assignment and receive a grade. There are no rewrites on the final essay due time constraints imposed by final grades.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.

- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES AND ACADEMIC CONTINUITY
