examples.

- Differentiate between explicit and implicit costs, graph and calculate fixed, variable, total, and marginal costs.
- Understand and define the four market structures (Perfect Competition, Monopoly, Monopolistic Competition, and oligopoly. Identify the graph of each market structure and analyze the short-run and long-run, zero economic profit, deadweight loss.
- Calculate and apply simple game theory models concerning oligopolistic markets.
- Describe factors of production and marginal analysis and production decisions.

Instructional Approach and Methods

This course will requires students to read the textbook and participating in the class discussions, students are required to do the online homework assignments, and take the tests that are posted on the weekly assignments online. Students receive participation grade by being in the class and engage in the discussions.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

The assessment for this course consists of weekly homework assignments, discussion board participation, writing a video summary paper, weekly quizzes, 3 tests, and a final comprehensive exam.

The grades are weighed and the weight of the assignments is as follows:

class participation	10%
Homework	15%
Quizzes	20%
3 tests	45%
Final Exam	10%

Grading Scale

The grade for this class is weighted as follows:

A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	Below 60%

Assignments

Students are expected to do the weekly assignments following the guidelines provided on eLearn.

Homework assignments - assignments are graded automatically and have three attempts for each question.

Tests- Every week there will be a test. Each test can be attempted twice and the best score of the two attempts will be recorded as your grade.

Final Exam (10% of graded) with 50 questions and a time limit of 45 minutes per each attempt.

Class Participation

Students are expected to be on time and participate in discussions in class. It is expected that students have a reliable internet access.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

The assignments in this class are done every week and are expected to be finished by the given due dates. The assignments cannot be extended. Extensions may be provided only under extenuating circumstances such as the death of the near family or illness that requires proper documentation such as a doctor, note.

Online/Web-Enhanced Course Supplementary Information

Virtual Office Hours

The instructor may be contacted as follows:

1. Via eLearn or by email at any time and the instructor will generally respond within 48 hours.
2. Office hours are by appointment only.

Technical Support

1. WSCC IET Helpdesk: Email helpdesk@ws.edu
2. Cengage Technical Support <https://cengageportal.secure.force.com/>

Web Addresses

All necessary web addresses will be provided in class or via eLearn.

Guideline for Communication: Email, Discussion Posts, Chat

When emailing the instructor, students should observe the following guidelines:

- Give your message a subject that includes your class and section (for example, ECON 2100, MWF 9:05am).
- Write your message in proper letter form with a greeting and signature that includes both your first and last name.
- Be detailed in your request. For example, if you need help with an assignment, specifically state which chapter, which assignment and which question you need assistance with. Also, specifically state what you do not understand. "Help" or "I don't know how to do this" is not specific enough.
- Send screenshots. I can best help you with a homework problem if you will send a screenshot of the problem and a screenshot of the "Check Your Work" screen.
- Please give me 24 hours to respond before you re-send an email with the same request.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

Academic Program Standards/Policies/Accreditation Information

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions). Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.

- d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
- e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
- f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
- g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
- h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.

Academic Honesty

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES AND ACADEMIC CONTINUITY
