1. The student should be able to appreciate film/cinema as an art form.
2. The student should be able to develop a basic approach to film as an original, cultural, and artistic phenomenon.

Class Participation

1. Students are expected to attend all designated classes. Class attendance and participation in in-class activities are absolutely essential to the student's ultimate success in the course. Failure to attend class and participate effectively in class may result in a failing grade for the course. Attendance, viewing of films, taking notes, experiential/hands-on learning, student readings, and out-of-class activities ("homework") are all important. The student will be expected to have read, viewed, and/or prepared the assigned material, and be able to participate in class discussions.
2. Although class activities missed because of absence cannot be made up, a limited amount of make-up work may be done for excused absences (illness or family emergency). Additional extra-credit work may be approved by the instructor. No makeups will be allowed for unexcused absences. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed work.
3. Behaviors related to attendance and participation – such as frequent absences or tardiness, distracting or inappropriate class conduct, or the failure to complete assignments on time – may significantly lower the student's grade.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

1. Exams will be drawn from the readings, films, and class notes. Exams will be primarily multiple-choice. All exams will be given online via eLearn unless circumstances require a physical exam. All exams must be taken on the day scheduled. If a student misses an exam due to illness the student should contact the instructor immediately upon his/her return to campus to schedule a makeup exam. No makeup exams will be given except in cases of documented personal illness or emergencies. Makeup exams must be completed within one week.
2. All assignments must be completed on or by the assigned date. A late penalty will be assessed at 25% per day for all work not completed on time. All written assignments must be typed or word-processed.
3. All materials turned in become the property of the Communication Department.
4. All forms of cheating, plagiarism, and academic dishonesty are strictly prohibited. All presentations, papers, and assignments for the course should be the student's original work according to guidelines governing the assignment. The penalty for cheating and plagiarism on tests, presentations, or assignments is a grade of zero and referral to the WSCC administration for any institutional penalties. Repeated violations can result in a grade of 'F' for the course.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

Participation and Attendance

A major focus of Humanities 2860 is that the student be able to criticize cinema in a learned manner. Failure to do so, and to absorb the necessary materials prescribed, could result in a low final grade! Therefore, class attendance and participation in class activities are absolutely essential to the student's ultimate success in the course. Failure to attend class and participate effectively may result in a failing grade for the course. Missed screenings cannot be redone—unless the films are found outside-of-class. Therefore, each class absence can reduce the student's class participation grade. Other behaviors related to attendance and participation such as frequent tardiness, distracting or inappropriate classroom conduct, the failure to participate in group exercises, or the failure to complete assignments and presentations on time may significantly affect the student's participation grade and final course grade.

Attendance Policy

Attendance will be noted in this class. Attendance is worth 20% of the overall course grade and is expected and will be recorded. Attendance is crucial for this course.

Absences and Makeup Work

Students are expected to attend all classes. THERE MAY BE A MINIMUM OF EXTRA-CREDIT WORK, BUT DOING THE REGULAR WORK IS ENCOURAGED! Missed screenings may be corrected by the student viewing the necessary film on his or her own time. NO MAKEUP CLASSWORK WILL BE GIVEN TO AN UNEXCUSED ABSENTEE. Note: The student should consult the Walters State Community College catalog for further attendance and classroom conduct information.

E-mail Response Time:

The instructor will check and reply to eLearn e-mail as quickly as possible. Please allow up to 24-48 hours.

Procedure for Submission of Work:

All work for this class, unless otherwise noted, will be submitted digitally online via eLearn or some other digital method. Students will not be notified if work is not submitted. It is the student's responsibility to submit their work in a timely manner.

Testing Procedures:

All exams will be given online via eLearn unless circumstances require a physical exam.

Grading and Work Return Procedures and Evaluation Process:

Exams will be worth 50% of the overall course grade and will be graded digitally via eLearn unless circumstances require a physical exam. Students will receive their grade instantly after the completion of their exam online.

The Film/Film Genre presentation will be worth 20% of the overall course grade.

The Film Genre project will be worth 10% of the overall course grade.

Attendance and Participation is worth 20% of the overall course.
