Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- Course Objectives:
  1. demonstrate knowledge of the masterpieces of American literature from the Colonial Period through American Romanticism.
  2. sharpen his or her critical reading and writing skills by analyzing and interpreting specific literary works from these periods and by using primary and secondary sources.
  3. demonstrate knowledge of the diverse social, philosophical, historical, cultural and political contexts of these literary works.
  4. demonstrate a basic understanding of how early American traditions and thought—as reflected in the course readings—continue to influence contemporary thought.
  5. demonstrate knowledge of the writing and documentation skills taught in English 1010 and 1020.

Instructional Approach and Methods

- Examinations: Essay and objective (2-3)
- Critical paper(s), 800 to 1000 words, documented, typed, corrected
- Quizzes

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

The final grade will be derived from an evaluation of examinations, critical papers, oral reports (if any) and quizzes.

The instructor may give daily quizzes. Students cannot make up missed unannounced quizzes. Quizzes will not count more than 20% of the course grade, and at least 60% of the course grade will derive from essay writing.

Grading Scale

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	59 or below

Assignments

All assignments, discussion board posts, quote analyses, and essays will be graded according to the course rubric. To roughly understand this, Accomplished corresponds to an A; Above Average corresponds to a B; Competent corresponds to a C; and Unacceptable roughly corresponds to a D or an F.

Assignments not meeting word requirements will be prorated. For instance, if an assignment requires 1000 words but only 600 are turned in, the highest possible grade is a 60%. Assignments not incorporating quotations and citations from sources as appropriate will be reduced by two letter grades. For example, the Chapter Three Test Essay requires two outside, secondary sources and two primary sources from within the class. A paper that only uses a single source from inside the class can score no higher than a D as it will be dropped three letter grades (A to B-1 grade; B to C-1 grade; C to D-1 grade).

Late Assignment and Tests will be reduced one letter grade (10%) per late day submitted. Quizzes and discussion boards cannot be made up.

The course grade breakdown is as follows:

20% Quizzes – 17 Total

15% Discussion Boards and Replies – 12 Total (2 lowest grades dropped)

15% Written Assignments (Dropboxes) – 13 Total (2 lowest grades dropped)

10% Chapter One Test (2.5% Multiple Choice; 2.5% Quote I.D., and Discussion; 5% Essay)

15% Chapter Two Test (2.5% Multiple Choice; 2.5% Quote ID, and Discussion; 10% Essay)

20% Chapter Three Test (3% Multiple Choice; 3% Quote ID, and Discussion; 14% Essay)

5% Walters State American Literature 1 Post Test

Class Participation

- Oral reports possibly required on topics related to course material. (Quiz points given for the oral reports.)
- Attendance at cultural events
- Library reserve reading

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

Note that regarding discussion boards, main posts are often due earlier than the discussion board itself. Students who miss the deadline for the creation of their main post are subject to a deduction in grade at the discretion of the instructor. Additionally, students are expected to “manage” their threads, which means students should periodically check the threads they created and respond to peers who replied to their original posts with original or particularly unique ideas. Not all peer or instructor replies need to be acknowledged, but those raising questions or other significant issues should receive a reply.

Email: When emailing me please let me know the class and the specific name of the assignment you’re asking about. This saves me a lot of time and guarantees a timely response.

Please expect a response to emails within 48 hours Monday through Friday. Emails sent over the weekend likely won’t be returned until Monday morning.

Academic Program Standards/Policies/Accreditation Information

The student may be required to attend cultural events that are related to the course content, such as literary readings, plays, and concerts. The student may receive extra credit in quiz points for attendance. The student may submit cultural event reviews for extra credit.

The student must draft, revise, and submit a documented critical paper and take all scheduled exams before the final grade is recorded. The exams and the critical paper are kept on file for one semester and are not returned to the student. All students must complete the Multiple Sections Verification (MSV) Pretest and Posttest. The MSV Posttest will be given in conjunction with the final exam and count no more than 5% of the course grade.

The instructor may refuse to accept papers that are not written according to class requirements or those for which there is a question about authorship or revision.

Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited. Students may not submit work from other classes unless permitted by the instructor. According to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, plagiarism is to "steal and pass off as one's own (the ideas or words of another); to present as one's own an idea or product derived from an existing source." Also, see The Little, Brown Essentials Handbook pages 151-157. Any student who plagiarizes will receive a zero on the paper and may receive a grade of F in the course. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook.)

Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade. A late paper receives a one-letter grade deduction for each day it is late unless the student has an excused absence and notifies the instructor in advance. This rate of deduction could result in a grade value of zero if a paper were to be several days late. The instructor can require written proof of a valid excuse. Even if the absence is justifiable or administratively approved, the student must complete the paper or make arrangements to do so within one week after returning to class. After one week, if the student has not made up the paper or made satisfactory arrangements to do so with the instructor, the student receives a 0 for that theme.

Students for whom English is a second language may contact Michelle Mitrik at 423-585-6930 for advising and/or tutoring referrals.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
  - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
  - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
  - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
    - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
    - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.

- c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
- d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
- e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
- f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
- g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
- h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
