Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

identifying and writing argumentative thesis statements.

- order major points in a reasonable and convincing manner based on that purpose by engaging in the writing process—including prewriting, outlining, drafting, and revising.

demonstrating the relationship between the thesis and outline.

writing formal topic and sentence outlines.

developing an introduction, body, and conclusion for each collegiate essay.

- develop ideas using appropriate argumentative rhetorical patterns by employing reasonable, logical argumentative strategies to support fully the thesis.

synthesizing source materials with original thought.

- employ correct diction, syntax, usage, grammar, mechanics, punctuation and spelling by editing and revising their essays.

addressing issues of style and audience through revision.

- manage and coordinate basic information gathered from an outside source by critically analyzing the source materials.

locating and using credible secondary sources.

differentiating between opinions, facts, and inferences.

quoting, paraphrasing, and summarizing source materials.

documenting sources according to MLA standards through a Works Cited list and internal citations

Instructional Approach and Methods

1. Students will produce an argumentative writing sample at the first class meeting in order for the instructor to evaluate basic writing skills and to make referrals for further assessments.
2. In addition to the sample, students will complete a first-of-semester Multiple Sections Verification (MSV) objective exam (which does not receive a grade), an end-of-semester MSV objective exam (which counts 5% of the final grade), quizzes, in-class writings, and major graded papers. These writings represent a minimum for the course, and with drafts and informal writing assignments, students should write a min of 4000 words during the semester.
3. Students will move through a process to complete major papers. The process will vary according to assignments, but it should include prewriting, outlining, drafting, and editing.
4. Students must write a minimum of four papers (including the writing sample). The instructor will assess stages of the writing process for each paper, and the student will revise accordingly to arrive at a final draft. Revisions may receive daily points for addressing instructor and peer feedback, but once a student submits a major paper for a final grade, it cannot be resubmitted for a higher grade.
5. The student will keep all required paper drafts and make revisions according to instructions. The instructor may require that this process be completed electronically.
6. The student will submit print or electronic notes, bibliographic information, rough drafts, and source material used in preparation of documented papers so that the instructor may verify paraphrased material and direct quotations. Additionally, students will submit all major papers to eLearn dropboxes for plagiarism detection.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

The instructor evaluates each paper on its own merits. While there is no single formula for evaluating any paper, in this course all papers will be assessed by standard rubrics. These rubrics will address criteria such as the quality of content and organization, thesis, specific detail to support and develop general statements, and the number and frequency of serious errors (such as fragments, comma splices, fused sentences, errors in agreement and tense, and awkward constructions). Repeated errors and deficiencies become significant in the evaluation of the student's writing. Since progress is the principal objective, students will have multiple opportunities to demonstrate mastery of the evaluated criteria.

Grading Scale

A	100% (900-1000 points)
---	------------------------

B	80 – 89% (800-899 points)
C	70 – 79% (700-799 points)
D	60 – 69% (600-699 points)
F	59% and below (0-599 points)

Assignments

The total points possible is 1,000.

Paper 1 is 100 points (10% of grade).

Paper 2 is 100 points (10% of grade).

Paper 3 is 250 points (25% of grade).

Paper 4 is 200 points (20% of grade).

Writing exercises make up 240 points (24% of grade)

Quizzes comprise 60 points (6% of grade).

The MSV posttest is worth 50 points (5% of grade).

Class Participation

Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade. A late paper receives a one-letter grade deduction for each day it is late unless the student has an excused absence and notifies the instructor in advance. This rate of deduction could result in a grade value of zero if a paper were to be several days late. The instructor can require written proof of a valid excuse. Even if the absence is justifiable or administratively approved, the student must complete the paper or make arrangements to do so within one week after returning to class.

Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

Grades are earned, not given! Your grade will directly reflect the effort you place into your writing.

Essay Grades

Each essay has a rubric used for grading. To earn the best grade on an essay, you should do the following:

Spend time with the writing process. The quality of the writing process directly relates to the quality of the essay. Spending time with the writing process will help you to earn better essay grades.

Review the rubric closely. The essay rubric clearly states the expectations for the particular essay.

FOLLOW DIRECTIONS. Each essay has a detailed set of directions. Not following these directions will lower your essay grade. If you submit an essay that does not follow the directions, I will grade the paper "as is," and you will receive a significantly lower grade.

FOLLOW DEADLINES. Late essays are accepted but are penalized 10% per day that the essay is late. No essays are accepted after the last day of class in order to give the instructor time to grade. Because due dates are so important in this class, students have the following resources to help them know important due dates:

- due dates will be on the course home page in eLearn
- LATE WORK FOR DISCUSSION BOARDS AND QUIZZES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED!
Please do not ask for assignments to be opened after due dates unless you have an emergency.

Generally, early work is accepted, so students with scheduling problems should use wise time management skills to avoid late penalties.

If you are absent when an assignment is scheduled, it is still due. You may submit via eLearn dropbox to receive partial credit. The sooner a document is received, the fewer points may be deducted. To avoid losing points, you can submit your assignment before your absence.

Plagiarism

Don't Plagiarize! Plagiarism is a serious offense. Using sources without proper citation is considered plagiarism. For example, copying and pasting from sources without proper citation for those sources is cheating. The first offense for plagiarism is a ZERO on the essay. The second offense for plagiarism is a ZERO for the course.

Each item submitted to the eLearn dropbox can be checked for plagiarism by utilizing a program called Turn It In, which color codes plagiarized material with links to websites. It will detect plagiarism even if the student has attempted to reword the material. Any suspected instance of plagiarism will be checked through this program.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. You should treat this class like a job. You should inform your professor when you know you have to be absent.

In the event that you miss class, you should do the following:

1. Log into eLearn! The day's assignment will be posted on the course homepage, under "News."
2. Ask another class member for notes or information regarding your missed class.
3. Complete all missed work (excluding quizzes) before the next class.

Procedure for Submission of Work

I require all essays to be submitted to the Dropbox for plagiarism detection and feedback will be given in Dropbox as well. All essays should be uploaded to the dropbox BEFORE the dropbox closes, or the essay will be penalized as outlined above.

ELearn

ELearn is an imperative part of this course. Through this online component, you can do the following:

Check email from me [Email]

Send me emails

See ALL course lectures [Content]

See assignments missed [Course homepage]

See current grades [Grades]

Submit essays [Dropbox]

Email other students in the class [Classlist]

Contacting the Instructor

Please keep in mind that the instructor is not available at all hours of the day.

1. You can email me via eLearn email. Please keep in mind that while I do check eLearn email often, I may not do so in the evenings or on weekends. YOU SHOULD ALLOW A MINIMUM OF 24 HOURS FOR A RESPONSE TO AN EMAIL. ON WEEKENDS, YOU MAY NOT RECEIVE A RESPONSE UNTIL MONDAY MORNING.

In the event of a grade dispute, it is the student's responsibility to provide documentation of course work.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions). Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).

- h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.
