Instructional Approach and Methods

1. Lectures
2. Class discussions
3. Assigned readings

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

1. 3 Exams covering roughly four chapters worth of lecture and reading material 100 points each

Grading Scale

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	59 and below

Assignments

A reading guide is assigned for each chapter and must be completed and turned in for correction.

Class Participation

Complete the assigned readings and come to class ready to discuss that day's reading assignment. Be an active listener and record important information from the lectures about your understanding of a work of art.

Regular class attendance is a student's obligation. If a student misses class, he or she is still responsible for all material presented and to be prepared for the next class. The college requires the instructor to keep accurate records and to report when students are not attending class.

Attendance for all exams is MANDATORY. There are no make-ups for any exam.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

We will be viewing a wide variety of art works. You are not expected to like everything, but I expect you to come to appreciate the work within the context of time and culture in which it was produced—this course is about empathetically experiencing the world's art history.

Cell phones and other electronic devices are not allowed.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.

3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
