Guidelines for Email Communication

When emailing the instructor, students should observe the following guidelines:

- Write your message with proper letter form, including first and last names. If there are multiple students with the same first name, I will not know who to help.
- Be detailed with your questions or requests. If you need help, include which assignment, chapter and question. Simply messaging with "I don't understand" is not sufficient and may result in a delayed response. The more detailed, the better!
- Please allow 24-48 hours for a response. I check my email daily, multiple times/day during the 9-5, M-F work week.

Online/Web-Enhanced Course Supplementary Information

This is an asynchronous online course and as such, students are encouraged to work ahead.

This is a fast-paced course. A detailed schedule of all assignments and due dates is published in eLearn. All assignments are available from the first day of class.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

- This course requires the use computers and listening devices. Students are responsible for having access to devices in which downloading the listening materials/OER reading is permitted.
- Stable internet access is required as all course materials will be on eLearn.
- Written Assignments: with the exception of discussion boards, all written assignments must be submitted as a word document (.doc) or pdf. See specific assignments for further detailed instructions.

Additional Information:

- To the best of my ability, I will answer emails within 24 hours, and grade homework within 7 days of the due date. If you need to meet with me virtually, feel free to email me at laura.weathersby@ws.edu to schedule an appointment.

- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.

- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.

Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.
