- 1. Application of the sociological perspective to experiences in the field
- 2. Describe how social institutions are interrelated and the role of social capital.
- 3. Understand the process of social change, social movements, and the role of the citizenry.
- 4. Explore the basic theoretical perspectives in respect to citizenship filtered through macro/micro level analysis.
- 5. Application of qualitative research methods to the field through participant observation and case studies
- 6. Analyze research methods, emphasizing their strengths and weakness.

Instructional Approach and Methods

SOCI 2210 is an HIP badged Hybrid course in the following areas: Undergraduate Research & Service Learning. Class culminates in an ethnography of a Community Based Organization. Class will meet on Monday's for discussion of material and general counsel in the production of an ethnography. Wednesday's class time is devoted to volunteering/service learning at the selected CBO, giving 1.5 hours a week of classtime for students to complete service learning hours. See elearn for more details.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

Students are required to complete a minimum of 20 hrs of service learning, up to 30 (preferred). The production of an Ethnography is the capstone assignment satisfying the undergraduate research requirement. All measures are listed below.

Service Learning 30 % of grade

Ethnography 40% of grade

Field Journal 20% of grade

Participation 10% of grade

Grading Scale

A	90-100%
B	80-89 %
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	0-59%

Assignments

Service Learning Hours are measured by the number of hours completed in an organization/institution under contract. All appropriate paperwork and forms must be submitted and are available in the Service Learning Manual for Social Science Students. Students must keep a service log and have proper authorities sign and approve of service. Students who do not complete the required service hours will lose points from this measure.

The Field Journal is a reflective journal in which students are required to keep and maintain for each day of service. Students will be required to write about their experiences and filter their experiences through the sociological theories and perspectives discussed in selected readings. Guidelines for Reflective Journals can be found in the Service Learning Manual for Social Science Students

The Qualitative Ethnography Research Paper will apply qualitative methods (service learning & participant observation, case studies, content analysis) to produce a research paper. The research paper should center on social capital, how volunteering affects democratic social change, and the ultimately the value of service to both society and the individuals.

Class Participation

Students are expected to attend Monday's lecture/workshops and complete service learning hours on Wednesday off campus.... completion of the assignments in addition are the basis of participation.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.

3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.
