ISBN: 9780357635223

Authors: Roger LeRoy Miller
Publication Date: 2021-03-01

Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- 1. Students will demonstrate a basic understanding of law, the American legal system, and ethics, as they relate to the business environment.
- 2. Students will demonstrate analytical and problem solving skills enabling them to recognize when legal and ethical issues are present as well as the likely outcome of those issues.

Instructional Approach and Methods

1. Instructional methods will include, but are not limited to, assigned readings, web-based materials, and discussion forums.
2. Evaluation methods will include review of weekly assignments, quizzes, and two exams.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

This course will be assessed based upon student performance on a combination of Module Case Studies (40% of the grade), MindTap Worksheets (20% of the grade), MindTap Hypotheticals (20% of the grade), and eLearn Discussions (20% of the grade).

Grading Scale

A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	Below 60%

Assignments

A Course Schedule documenting the topics covered and assignments due each week is posted in eLearn.

MindTap Learn-It and Check Your Understanding Activities. Students will complete several online interactive MindTap Learn-It and Check Your Understanding activities each week. The value of these activities varies by length and those values are labeled in MindTap. The total of these activities accounts for 20% of the final grade.

MindTap Case Problems and Hypotheticals. Students will complete one online MindTap Case Problems and Hypotheticals for each chapter covered in this course. The value of each MindTap Case Problem and Hypothetical varies by length and those values are labeled in MindTap. The total of these hypotheticals accounts for 20% of the final grade.

Discussion Boards. Throughout the course there will be four discussions. Topics will relate to the material being studied. Specific guidelines for the discussions are available in eLearn. Each discussion is worth 25 points. The total of the discussions account for 20% of the final grade.

Case Problems. At the conclusion of each module, students will complete a set of case problems that require students to apply the law to a given fact scenario. Answers should be written in the IRAC method, which is explained in eLearn. Each set of case problems is worth 25 points. The total of the case problems account for 40% of the final grade.

Class Participation

This is a fully online course. In order to be counted for attendance in this course, you will need to complete your weekly assignments for the class.

Punctuality is important in keeping up in a timely fashion with the reading assignments and in completing the assignments that accompany the readings. Students should check eLearn regularly for updates.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

Policy Regarding Late Assignments: Discussion posts, MindTap Worksheets, and MindTap Hypotheticals will not be accepted late. For Case Problems, students are allowed one late submission during the course of the semester. Points may be deducted for late submissions.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

As grading Case Problems and Discussion assignments in this course requires significant consideration of complex legal questions, it may take up to two weeks to return grades.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions). Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.

- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES AND ACADEMIC CONTINUITY
