Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- Demonstrate an understanding of the binary numbering system.
- Demonstrate the use of logic devices.
- Demonstrate the use of Boolean logic.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the octal number system.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the hexadecimal number system.
- Use discrete integrated circuits to create binary logic circuits.
- Demonstrate the use of Demorgan's Theorems (rule 1 and 2).
- Know the symbol and function of the three basic logic gates.

- Demonstrate why the NAND is the universal logic gate.
- Use boolean algebra, Demorgan's Theorems, and identities to reduce logic circuits.
- Demonstrate the use of synchronous and asynchronous counters.
- Describe how latches and flip-flops function as "memory".
- Perform conversions between binary, octal, hexadecimal, decimal, and BCD (binary coded decimal number systems).
- Identify uses of MUX(multiplexers) and DEMUX(de-multiplexers).
- Demonstrate the use of decoders and encoders.
- Describe CPU architecture and bus structure.

Instructional Approach and Methods

Class topics will be introduced through lectures that include power-point presentations provided in eLEARN. Selected problems will then be worked out using a combination of manual calculations and circuit simulation software. Microsoft Teams will be used to record the lectures and example problems for student review. Homework assignments will be assigned to verify student engagement and understanding. In lieu of a textbook; powerpoints and the All About Circuits website will provide reference material for the course. Additionally; most topics will include a hands-on lab activity to reinforce the topics covered.

Academic Program Standards/Policies/Accreditation Information

The AAS degree in Electrical Engineering Technology and the AAS degree in Engineering Systems Technology are both accredited by the Association of Technology, Management and Applied Engineering, or ATMAE. Students should be mindful of this and make sure to include this information on resumes when the job search process begins.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.

- d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.
