Autodesk Revit 2024 Architecture Basics

ISBN: 9781630576004

Authors: Elise Moss

Publisher: SDC Publications

Publication Date: 2023-08-01

Supplemental or Optional Materials

Students are to create a file folder for their Revit work in Microsoft One Drive. At the beginning of this course, the files you turn in for grading will be small enough to fit into E-Learn dropboxes. As the semester progresses, you may have problems getting your files to load into these dropboxes. At that time, you will need to give your instructor access to your One Drive folder so your work can be graded. Students are responsible for any lost assignments.

Students in conventional and hybrid courses have the option of downloading Autodesk REVIT 2024 from the Autodesk website. Students taking this course through a WEB, VIDEO, or DVC section are REQUIRED to have access to Autodesk REVIT 2024. They may download it onto a Windows based PC at home if desired. The instructor will provide instructions for students to create a student account on the Autodesk website, as well as instructions for the software download, during the first class session or via video.

Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- 1. Develop and present a plan that will cover the proposed topic of study.
- 2. Follow the proposed plan of study and provide updates regarding the progress of the study project on a scheduled basis.
- 3. Provide a thorough final presentation of the topic studied.

Instructional Approach and Methods

The text for this course provides introductory materials in workbook form to teach the basics of Autodesk REVIT to students. Each class period will include lecture and lab content following the textbook. Students will complete architectural design assignments that will support the lecture content from the textbook.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

Weekly assignments, homework, attendance, and mid-term and final exams will be used for assessment purposes. Final grades will be determined by the following weights:

- Attendance - 10%
- Weekly assignments and homework – 40%
- Mid-term and final exams in project form – 50%

Grading Scale

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	Below 60

Assignments

Each chapter from the textbook has practice problems and/or review questions to be completed and submitted for the weekly assignment and homework grade. These assignments are intended to assess the students' progress through the course.

Class Participation

Students are expected to attend every class unless dire circumstances prevent the student from attending. Such circumstances are covered under the Excused Absences section of the syllabus. If your course section requires you to be in a classroom, attending from home via virtual meeting software does not equate to being in attendance. You will be marked absent. All students are expected to be engaged, either in person or through virtual meeting software (with camera) when the meeting starts. Attendance will be taken during the first five minutes of class.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

Students with “excused absences” must complete all make-up work within (7) days. Exceptions to this rule must be discussed with and cleared by the instructor BEFORE the deadline. Examples of excused absences include, but are not limited to, personal illness, illness of a spouse, child, or close family member, bereavement, and pre-approved school functions. Documentation is required in all cases. Faculty are not obligated to allow students to make up work missed due to unexcused absences.

Attendance is required in traditional, hybrid, video and DVC sections. It will be taken within the first five minutes of the class period. Attendance for Web courses is counted by having all your completed assignments turned in by the deadline. Attendance comprises 10% of the final grade, and will be based on daily attendance grades. Students get a grade of 100 if they are in class when roll is called. Tardiness costs students 50 points. Web students do not get 50% for incomplete work. Absences count zero points. Work for excused absences may be made up, but an excused absence does not erase an attendance grade of zero. It is the responsibility of tardy students to notify the instructor of their late arrival to class as the class session ends. Once the session ends, absences will not be converted to tardy arrivals.

Online/Web-Enhanced Course Supplementary Information

Students will be provided with the instructions for creating student accounts on the Autodesk website and shown how software is downloaded during the first day of class.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

Inappropriate Class Activities

Once class has started, please be courteous and give your attention to the instructor. Reading e-mail, browsing the Web, playing games, or working on other assignments are not appropriate activities during lecture or lab. Failure to abide by this rule or any other course ground rules can result in students being asked to leave the classroom.

If you are in attendance via virtual meeting software, you are expected to have your camera on and directed toward your face/head. You are also expected to have your microphone muted unless you want to ask a question.

Campus policies prohibit the use of ALL tobacco products inside all buildings. (See the Walters State Catalog/Handbook.)

Campus policies prohibit minors from accompanying parents into the classroom and from being left unsupervised outside in hallways. (See the Walters State Catalog/Handbook.)

Food and drinks at the computer stations are prohibited.

Syllabus

Syllabus is subject to change as the need arises throughout the semester.

Passwords for individual student computer accounts are NOT to be shared with other students or provided to unauthorized persons outside of the school environment.

Academic Program Standards/Policies/Accreditation Information

Students should be mindful of this and make sure to include this information on resumes when the job search process begins.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.

 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.

- d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.
