Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- 1. Identify significant historical events in American History from the establishment of the first English colonies through the Reconstruction period.
- 2. Provide examples of the role of politics, the economy, and diplomacy in the formation of the American government.
- 3. Assess the major social, political, and cultural issues that arose within the United States from 1789 through 1877.
- 4. Differentiate between primary and secondary sources and integrate these sources into the study of history.

Instructional Approach and Methods

Students will be evaluated through (1) quizzes and short responses that are incorporated into the e-textbook, (2) a midterm exam, (3) a final exam, and (4) in-class assignments. In-class assignments will vary throughout the semester and could include writing, presentations, or graded group activities.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

Students will be evaluated through (1) quizzes and short writings that are incorporated into the e-textbook, (2) a midterm exam, (3) a final exam, and (4) in-class assignments. In-class assignments will vary throughout the semester and could include writing, presentations, or graded group activities.

Testing may be done online or during the class meetings. Students will be informed as the semester progresses.

Assignments

The material needed for preparing and studying for exams and daily activities are provided in the textbook and outlines in the Content section of elearn and through lectures and discussions that take place during class periods. All of this is testable material. Optional audio/visual lectures (via Youtube) are available for some of the lectures.

1. Textbook Assignments: 35%
2. Midterm Exam: 25%
3. Final Exam: 25%
4. Classroom Activities: 15%

Class Participation

I want this class to be a continuing conversation about U.S. history. The themes and concepts of the course are much more important (and interesting) than the data that students can get by reading the course materials. I will do everything possible to facilitate a dialogue among all of us. That is why there is a hard deadline for the completion of the textbook chapters.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

Students are required to be engaged in classroom activities. In almost all cases this means taking notes, participating in discussions or asking questions. Some activities (listed above) are optional (you don't have to do a presentation or ask questions in class) but students are still required to listen and take notes regardless of who is talking (the instructor, another student, or a video). Failure to stay engaged in classroom activities may be considered disruptive behavior. Students who have a documented disability concerning note taking are asked to see me on the first day of class to discuss options. Students may record my lectures but are still required to take notes during the class period.

Anything that is required to be uploaded into a Dropbox must be done before the deadline. The deadline will be given in class, but will also be available on the Dropbox itself or in the Calendar. If a student misses a deadline, then they must provide a reason in writing. I will not accept emailed assignments if a student misses a deadline.

Online/Web-Enhanced Course Supplementary Information

This class features an electronic textbook. Students must purchase the code and register at Great River Learning's website or purchase the book directly at www.grlcontent.com The deadline for the first assignment and quiz is Sunday, September 3. Students will do work in the e-book that will be worth 35% of the course grade.

An optional textbook at <http://www.digitalhistory.uh.edu/index.cfm> is available to clarify anything not covered in class or in the required textbook.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions).

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:

- a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.

3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.
- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES AND ACADEMIC CONTINUITY
