Article Review Components

The instructor will explain how Article Reviews will be evaluated for grading purposes and assessment purposes in the classroom.

This course requires that students display a sample of their writing.

1. Select one journal article that is of interest to you (from the list I provide within eLearn).
2. Read and summarize the article. Divide the review into three sections:
  1. Purpose of the article
  2. Key concepts, tenets, and findings
  3. Most significant contributions to your understanding
3. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, in 12-point, Times New Roman font, and have one inch margins. Please include a title page and reference page. The paper should be at least two pages in length (excluding the title and reference pages).
4. Please use APA format. A sample Article Review following APA format can be found in the Article Review module in Content in eLearn. You may also visit the OWL website or contact Jennifer Mayes at WSCC's writing lab (Jennifer.Mayes@ws.edu) for additional help. You may also contact Audrey Shoemaker, our reference librarian, for guidance with APA formatting.
5. Please submit a copy of your article review in the Dropbox by the due date provided in the Tentative Course Schedule. Late papers will incur a 5 point per day deduction from the grade. The Article Review is worth 50 points. The grading rubric is as follows:

Skill/Assessment	Below Competency	Competency	Mastery
	4 points	8 points	12.5 points
Thesis/Introduction to subject of inquiry	Thesis is unclear and loosely related to topic	Thesis is clear and aligned with writing topic	Thesis is clear to reader and matches topic of paper
Discussion of details	Article review lacks discussion of details, concepts, tenets and findings presented in the article indicating limited to no understanding of the materials presented in the article	Article review shows some discussion of the details, concepts, and tenets and findings presented in the article indicating an understanding of the materials presented in the article	Article review discusses all relevant details, concepts, tenets and findings presented in the article indicating a firm grasp of the materials presented in the article
Analysis of the article review/Contribution to Understanding	Article review contains little to no analysis of how this article contributed to an understanding of psychology	Article review contains moderate reflection/analysis of how this article contributed to an understanding of psychology	Article review contains reflective analysis of how this article contributed to an understanding of psychology

	4 points	8 points	12.5 points
Formatting & Grammar	Format of article review does not conform to APA format. Spelling and grammatical errors permeate the article review	Format of article review loosely conforms to APA format. Spelling and Grammatical errors are minimal	Format of article review conforms to APA format. There are no significant grammatical or spelling errors

As I grade the Article Review assignment, I will mark up to 10 spelling/grammar errors. After that, I will not mark additional errors, and the student will automatically receive the lowest number of points for formatting and grammar. I plan on using Turnitin as a part of grading these papers. If you plagiarize, you will receive a '0' for the paper and possibly for the course. If you are unfamiliar with plagiarism, or if you have any other questions, please let me know.
