Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives

- As a result of successful completion of ENGL 0804, students will be able to
 1. Apply several techniques of prewriting to generate and organize ideas.
 2. Choose appropriate argumentative topics.
 3. Write thesis statements that establish the main claims for themes.
 4. Write paragraphs unified by clear topic sentences.
 5. Use relevant rhetorical patterns and supporting materials to develop themes.
 6. Identify logical organization and effective transitions in themes.
 7. Recognize unified, coherent, and audience-appropriate writings.
 8. Edit themes to conform to conventions of grammar, mechanics, and usage by avoiding the following major errors: sentence fragments, comma splices, run-on sentences, subject-verb agreement errors, pronoun-antecedent agreement errors, inappropriate verb forms, and inappropriate tense shifts.

The objectives listed above are the minimum content of the course.

Instructional Approach and Methods

Instruction will come from lecture, discussion, reading, exercises, and practice in writing (in class or in lab). Grades will be determined by evaluation of writing exercises and quizzes.

Assessment, Evaluation and Testing Procedures

This is a pass/fail course. Students who receive 70% of the possible points for the course will pass and remove their LS Writing requirement. Passing the co-requisite Composition I course automatically awards students with 70% of the points.

Grading Scale

P	70-100%
F	0-69%

Assignments

Students will correct final papers, take grammar quizzes, and work on weak areas in the writing process.

Class Participation

Class participation is both a means to earn extra credit on a low test score and to share information and ideas with other students and the instructor to help the student learn and develop writing skills.

Course and Class Policies/Procedures

Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited. Students may not submit work from other classes unless permitted by the instructor. According to Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, plagiarism is to "steal and pass off as one's own (the ideas or words of another); to present as one's own an idea or product derived from an existing source." Also, see The Little, Brown Essentials Handbook pages 151-157. Any student who plagiarizes will receive a zero on the paper and may receive a grade of F in the course. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook.)

Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade. A late paper receives a one-letter grade deduction for each day it is late unless the student has an excused absence and notifies the instructor in advance. This rate of deduction could result in a grade value of zero if a paper were to be several days late. The instructor can require written proof of a valid excuse. Even if the absence is justifiable or administratively approved, the student must complete the paper or make arrangements to do so within one week after returning to class. After one week, if the student has not made up the paper or made satisfactory arrangements to do so with the instructor, the student receives a 0 for that theme.

Students for whom English is a second language may contact Michelle Mitrik at 423-585-6930 for advising and/or tutoring referrals.

Online/Web-Enhanced Course Supplementary Information

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the college. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. Instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus.

Additional Course Requirements/Details/Information

Attendance will be taken at the beginning, middle, or end of class. You should treat this class like a job. If you need to be absent, Inform your instructor as soon as you know that you have to be absent.

In the event that you miss class, you should do the following:

1. Log into eLearn. The day's assignment will be posted on the course homepage, under "News."
2. Ask another class member for notes or information regarding your missed class.
3. Complete all missed work before the next class.

You can email me via eLearn e-mail. Please keep in mind that while I do check eLearn e-mail often, I may not do so in the evenings or on weekends. Monday through Friday, you should allow for a response within 48 hours. On weekends, you may not receive a response until the following Monday.

Academic Honesty

Faculty expect all students to refrain from acts of academic misconduct including but not limited to:

1. Plagiarism - refers to using another person's ideas or writing without giving proper credit to the original source. Indulging in this type of conduct will subject the student to disciplinary sanctions, which may be imposed through the regular institutional procedures of Walters State Community College as outlined in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will result in a grade of "0" for the paper/exam/presentation. Student Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions contained in the college Catalog/Student Handbook apply (see policy 04:18:02 Disciplinary Sanctions). Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Using cut/paste tool from original document with no references given.
 - b. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own.
 - c. Forging or otherwise altering signatures.
 - d. Giving or falsifying academic documents or materials.
2. Cheating - construed as attempting to deceive or mislead which includes, but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Utilizing old tests, projects, notes or written papers.
 - b. Providing unauthorized information to a fellow student about exam content.
 - c. Receiving unauthorized aid from any source with quizzes, examinations, or other assignments.
 - d. Seeking information in an unacceptable manner during/preceding an exam or other assigned work (cheat sheet, verbal exchange, looking at another person's paper or electronic device, utilizing headphones, using textbook when the test/quiz is not an open book test/quiz, using textbook test bank etc.).
 - e. Consulting with a classmate or others when taking a computerized test.
 - f. Disregarding other specific policies and procedures outlined for a particular class.
 - g. Utilizing unapproved technology/electronic equipment during testing (i.e.: mobile devices such as cell phones, smart devices, or tablets, etc.).
 - h. Using the same Internet Protocol network address (IP address) as another student for testing without approval from the course faculty.
3. The use of any generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool, such as OpenAI's ChatGPT, Google's Bard, or any other pre-trained language model (commonly referred to as "chatbot"), must be cited for any assignment where it has been used and may not be used unless specifically allowed by your instructor. Please see your instructor or the course policies within the syllabus if you have questions.

PURPOSE, LIMITATIONS AND MODIFICATION OF SYLLABUS

This syllabus sets forth the expectations for the course content, work, and grading as well as expectations for student performance and conduct. The syllabus does not constitute a contract between the student and the instructor or the College. The information contained here is subject to change at any time. The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time with written notification to the students. Though changes are possible, it is expected that the course will be conducted as described in this syllabus for the semester/year specified in the Course Information section of the syllabus. This syllabus is only valid for the semester/year specified and course requirements are not guaranteed for future semesters.

COURSE GROUND RULES

- Students must attend the first day of on-ground class or contact the instructor prior to the first class. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class. Excessive absences may substantially lower the course grade.
- Regular class attendance is a student's obligation for any course regardless of format. (See the Walters State Catalog/Student Handbook). If a student misses class, it is his or her responsibility to contact the instructor regarding missed assignments and/or activities and to be prepared for the next class assignment.

- Students enrolled in web courses must follow the course attendance policy defined for online attendance during the first week of class and throughout the term. Failure to do this may result in being dropped from the class during week one OR may result in the accrual of absences which may negatively impact the student's grade in the course.
- Students who have not paid fees on time and/or are not correctly registered for this class and whose names do not appear on official class rolls generated by the Walters State student information system (MyWS) will not be allowed to remain in class or receive credit for this course.
- Electronic devices must not disrupt the instructional process or college-sponsored academic activity. Use of electronic devices is prohibited unless use of the device is relevant to the activity and use is sanctioned by the faculty member in charge. Electronic devices that are not relevant to the activity or sanctioned by the faculty member in charge should be set so that they will not produce an audible sound during classroom instruction or other college-sponsored academic activity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving any type of financial aid or scholarship should contact the Financial Aid Office before making any changes to their schedule. Schedule changes without prior approval may result in loss of award for the current term and future terms.

All forms of student Financial Aid may be jeopardized or lost due to the lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress in one or multiple courses. Lack of Satisfactory Academic Progress may negatively impact a student's degree/certificate completion pace and further jeopardize Financial Aid eligibility.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES AND ACADEMIC CONTINUITY

For information related to the cancellation of classes due to inclement weather or other events, please check the Senators Emergency Text system or the college's Web site at:
